WINE INDUSTRY INVOLVEMENT

Directorship role with original Hamilton's Ewell Vineyards Pty Ltd Group from 1972 (at age 21) until 1979. Hamilton's Ewell Vineyards Pty Ltd was then Australia's sixth largest wine group of companies until its sale to Mildara Wines Ltd.

Planned and implemented a "re-born" business development of Hamilton's Ewell Vineyards Pty Ltd into a grape growing business (1991 and continuing).

HAMILTON'S EWELL VINEYARDS

In 1979, the original Hamilton's Ewell Vineyards Pty Ltd company was sold "lock, stock and barrel" to emerging industry giant Mildara Wines Ltd. Over the next decade, rationalisation saw the disappearance of many traditional Hamilton's wine and spirit labels in Australia and abroad. In 1989, the original Hamilton's Ewell Vineyards Pty Ltd company was deregistered, effectively spelling an end to an era.

From 1991, Mark and his wife Deborah moved to secure and re-register the Hamilton's Ewell Vineyards trade name in Australia and overseas and acquired and planted about 500 acres of premium vineyards in the Barossa Valley, Eden Valley, Lower Murray and Wrattonbully.
